

[Sidebar 4]

A PREVENTION MOVEMENT—A DEFINITION

A PREVENTION MOVEMENT is a sustained series of actions and events aligned with the principles and policies of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention. We believe presently there are unique opportunities to forge, expand and intensify a Prevention Movement inspired by the proposition that optimal health is a moral and social imperative. The movement comes bearing self-perpetuating healthful consequences.